Speech Clinic Benefit Slated

An afternoon of surprises awaits guests who attend the benefit tea at the Embassy of Chile on Wednesday, May 25 from 3 to 5 p.m.

The Chilean Ambassador and Mrs. Walter Muller are lending their Embassy for the afternoon party to be held by the members of the National Speech Clinic Foundation for the benefit of the George Washington University Speech Clinic.

The foundation assists those who are in need of speech correction, who are financially unable to help themselves. The members work closely with the GWU Speech Clinic Director Dr. Calvin W. Pettit.

Mrs. Peter C. Cameron is president of the group and will receive with Mrs. Muller and Mrs. Frederick A. de Moleyns, general chairman of the party. Mrs. Thomas Meloy has charge of hostesses. Mrs. H. Leigh Brite has charge of the pourers, and Mrs. Edgar Kirby Thompson, door prizes. Mrs. Charles P. Cabell and Mrs. Edward P. Morgan have charge of refreshments and Mrs. Theodore R. Lettis the table decorations.
